Raising on 19th October

We had another good turnout of members and visitors as Bro Alan Beck was raised to the High and Sublime Degree of Master Mason. Bro Eddie Ross, RWM of Lodge Greenock St John's No 175 led the deputation of visiting brethren and complimented the degree team on its work. We were pleased to see Bro Brian McFadyen along with brethren from his affiliate lodge,

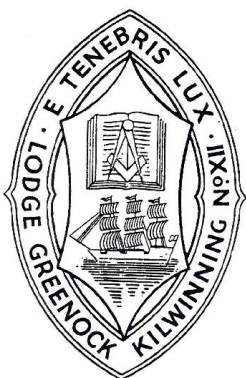

The Lodge of Erskine No 1566. Brian presently holds the office of Senior Deacon. Brian's father, Bro John McFadyen, a stalwart member of No XII for many years, was also in attendance.

Installation

The Installation will be at 630pm with deputations received at 645pm on 16th November. Bros KK Morrison, JS Adams and KC MacDougall will re-install Bro Arthur Young

Research

As a follow up to Bro Drew McKenzie's lecture on Bro RL Scott, I have been doing some research into the history of No XII. Recently, I have been looking at the minute book of the period 1932 -1941 and it has made fascinating reading. So much is different about the Lodge at that time and things that we take for granted now, and have assumed to be long term 'traditions' of the Lodge, are just not so! Some examples will follow in the next XII talk.

Mark Degree on 2nd November

Bro Alan Beck will be advanced to the Mark degree at the next meeting on Tuesday 2nd November. The degree team is
