Tuesday's meeting is a meeting for brethren of No XII only. This includes all no XII members – initiates, affiliates and honorary members.

Forthcoming Visitations

We would like a good response from brethren for the following visitations. Brethren of our sister Lodges are very welcome to

Tuesday 12th April

RWM Bro Carl Hempsey of Lodge Crawfurdsburn Greenock No 1121 has invited No XII to bring a deputation of brethren to confer a Raising on Fellowcrafts of 1121. This is a great honour and will be the first time that No XII has worked in Crawfurdsburn since March 1990, when RWM

Bro John Paton invited RWM Bro Iain White to bring a deputation from No XII to confer an Initiation. Brethren should meet at West Stewart street at 715 for 730pm.

Thursday 14th April

Bros Alan Beck and Iain White intend to repay the visit of Lodge Shalom No 1600 by attending its regular meeting on Thursday 14th April in the Neptune Masonic Centre, 101 Clifford Street, Glasgow G51 1QP (just behind the Swallow Bellahouston Hotel). Bro Alan has a great big car that can hold 7 people. He has offered to drive and we would like to fill that for starters! We would intend to leave Greenock around 630pm.

Those who intend to join us, please phone or text Alan on 07739514242 or Iain on 07575752570.

Meeting on 15th March

The meeting was a terrific success with 67 brethren in the Lodge to see Lodge Sir Michael No 989, led by RWM Bro Jim Pearson, work an excellent exemplification of the Fellowcraft Degree. Bro Jim had 19 brethren in his deputation which was a truly excellent effort. There was also a deputation from Lodge Shalom No 1600 in the Province of Glasgow led by RWM Bro David Black. As ever, we are so grateful to all our visiting brethren.

The evening also had a big surprise for Bro James Strachan of Lodge Crawfurdsburn Greenock No 1121. He was called to the centre of the carpet by Bro Iain White PM who then conferred the obligation of Honorary Membership upon him. Bro Jim received the honour because of the tremendous support that he has given No XII by visiting us with such great regularity over the years.

After the meeting, the visiting brethren were treated to some No XII Hospitality

Iain White PM
