Tuesday 6th April 2010

Our next Regular Meeting promises to be another big night for Lodge Greenock Kilwinning No XII. It is an Entering ceremony and we have our first candidate who lives in Greenock for nearly 8 years! The Degree team is listed below. Also it is the Annual Visitation of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire

West. RWPGM Bro James W Miller and his Office Bearers will be along to see the Lodge work and also to give their annual report on the administration and finances of the Lodge. We shall be taking the opportunity of the presence of the Provincial Grand Master to present him with a cheque for £200 to be passed to the Grand Lodge of Scotland for the Haiti disaster appeal. Our senior Past master who is active in the Lodge is Bro Kenneth K Morrison. Kenny has been a member since the 1960s and has rarely missed a meeting in all these years. He has been a mainstay of the Lodge. To recognize this, he will receive a Distinguished Service Membership certificate from RWM Bro Arthur Young at Tuesday's meeting. The whole evening will be rounded off with a finger buffet and the usual No XII hospitality. It's another evening not to be missed!

Tuesday 16th March

The exemplification by Lodge Firth of Clyde No 626 was a great success with another big attendance and great fellowship. This was only the 10th time since 1728 that a visiting Lodge has worked in No XII.
