Tuesday 5th October 2010 – Bro RL Scott

We have a very special meeting on Tuesday. First, there is a notice of motion. It is concerned with updating our Lodge Bye-Laws. This is something that is long overdue and will bring them in line with the present day operation of the Lodge. Second, our old friend Bro Drew McKenzie, a Past Master of Lodge Crawfordsburn Greenock No 1121, will deliver the lecture RL Scott – adventurer, collector, big game hunter, shipbuilder and freemason. Robert Lyons Scott was a larger than life character who, in addition to all the other fascinating aspects of his life, was arguably the most eminent freemason ever to wear a No XII apron with the possible exception of Bro Alexander Drummond. Drew has done extensive research into Scott's eventful life and will share some of his findings with us. This is an evening not to be missed!

Passing on 7th September

Bro Alan Beck was passed to the second, square or Fellowcraft degree on Tuesday 7th September. There was a good turn out of No XII members and a handsome deputation of visitors, led by Bro Thomas Trotter, RWM of Lodge Firth of Clyde Gourock No 626. Bro Kenny Morrison PM received the gavel from RWM Bro Arthur Young. Bro Kenny gave the Obligation and taught the Secrets and the rest of his degree team was : The Apron Bro Kevin Barton WSW; The Working Tools Bro James S Adams PM; The Tracing Board Bro Iain White PM; The Charge Bro Alex Galbraith DM.

At the end of the meeting RWM Bro Trotter complimented the 'experienced' degree team on its excellent work and was kind enough to say that a marker had been set down in the Province at the start of the new session in terms of the quality of floor work
