Tuesday 20th April 2010

RWM Bro Eddie Ross is bringing a deputation from Lodge Greenock St John's No 175 to No XII on Tuesday 20th April to provide an exemplification of the Fellowcraft Degree. It's another ground-breaking and historical evening for No XII as this will be the first time that Lodge Greenock St John's has ever worked in No XII. It will be only the 11th time that a visiting Lodge has done the degree work in No XII's 282 year history. Lodge Greenock St John's has been very supportive of No XII and we are delighted to have the brethren along to further cement the relationship between the two lodges. The degree will be worked as follows: Obligation RWM Bro Eddie Ross; the Secrets; Bro Marshall North WJW; the Charge Bro Robert Shields PM. Also, Honorary Membership will be conferred upon Bro Sandy Reddy of Lodge Greenock St John's in recognition of accountancy services rendered to No XII. We look forward to a great evening.

Bowling Match with Lodge Crawfurdsburn Postponed

The annual challenge match, scheduled for 30th April has had to be postponed. A new date will be fixed in September.

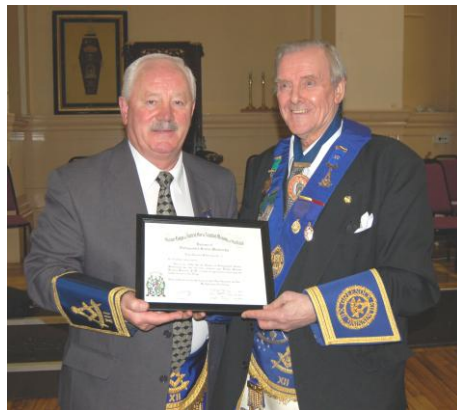

Entering on 6th April

Bro Alan D Beck was admitted into the mysteries and privileges of Antient Freemasonry, our first candidate residing in Greenock for almost 8 years. Bro Alan was proposed by Bro Iain White PM and seconded by Bro Jack Glenn PM. There was a big attendance again. Our visitors were led in by Bro Tommy Trotter RWM of Lodge Firth of Clyde Gourock No 626 and also in the deputation were Bros Henry and William Ponceau from France. It was the Annual Visitation by the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire West. The lodge received administrative and financial 'clear minutes' and PGM (Substitute) Bro John RS Keith reported very favourably on the quality of work by the degree team.

Recognition for Kenny

Past Master Bro Kenneth K Morrison was honoured by No XII at the meeting of 6th April. He was presented with a Distinguished Service Membership Diploma by RWM Bro Arthur Young to mark his tremendous enthusiasm and commitment over many years. Kenny joined the lodge in 1966 and has rarely missed a meeting in 44 years. He was Senior Warden at the 250th Anniversary celebrations, RWM in 1979-81 and again in 2003 for the 275th Anniversary. He is one of a very few brethren in the history of the lodge who have returned to the chair.
